ZON D'AMOUR

Entertainment Journalist, Host & Moderator

Zon D'Amour is an alumna of Howard University. With nearly two decades of experience as an entertainment journalist, she's written for the Los Angeles Sentinel Newspaper, CocoaFab, HelloBeautiful, and xoNecole.

Experiences that have helped her to pivot into becoming a TV/Film Marketing Strategist.

A highly sought-after journalist, D'Amour has interviewed Hollywood's elite including Kevin Hart, Kerry Washington, Melissa McCarthy, Angela Bassett, Usher, Gabrielle Union, J.Cole, Big Sean, Larenz Tate, and Taraji P. Henson to name a few. Many of her interviews have an engagement and viewership totaling over 100,000 across several platforms.

In 2023, D'Amour was a moderator for the 5th Annual Micheaux Film Festival. On October 24, 2024 D'Amour will moderate a panel with the Showrunners of "Insecure", "Survival of the Thickest", "Reasonable Doubt", and "Everybody Still Hates Chris" during the 6th Annual Micheaux Film Festival.

A seamstress since the age of three, D'Amour is also the Founder of a unisex vegan leather travel brand that's been featured in ESSENCE Magazine, Men's Journal, and the Associated Press site AP Buyline.

Additional professional experiences include working as a Project Manager and Event Producer.

D'Amour is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. A native of New Orleans, she currently resides in Los Angeles.
